WEEKLY BULLETIN

October 6-10, 2014

"A positive attitude causes a chain reaction of positive thoughts, events and outcomes. It is a catalyst and it sparks extraordinary results." Wade Boggs

Thanks to:

- . Thanks to the 3rd grade team for bringing Halloween treats for our staff meeting.
- . Thanks to all staff members who did preparation to start RTI classes this week.
- . Thanks to the Mr. Mora and Mrs. Burke for helping to conduct a successful Morning Sing this week.
- . Thanks to Irene and our Kindergarten team for setting up the Student Store on Friday.

Book Fair

We fundraised $6,417.96. Awesome job Jaguars!! This money will purchase many wonderful books in the library for our student!

RTI Classes

Thanks for starting RTI classes. Remember that every day a different small group out to room 8,18, or the Science Room.

Oct. 6th Staff Development

On Monday, we will be discussing Text Complexity as will all other elementary schools. We will discuss goal setting, student quadrants, and I will be meeting with each grade level teams regarding assessments being used this trimester. I will email you the agenda over the weekend.

Positive Behavior Support

This week our Positive Behavior Lesson Plan is covering how the students should freeze and line up on the playground. Remember that we continue to give out stars to the classrooms that are "Best in Line."

Walk-Throughs this Week

During classroom walk-throughs, we are looking for:

- . Pair Share
- . Stand and Deliver
- . Equity sticks
- . Whiteboards
- . Student Engagement
- . ELD instruction
- . RTI clipboards & instruction
- . Group Points for positive reinforcement
- . Technology enhancement

This week we didn't see many teachers using pair share, stand and deliver, equity sticks, or whiteboards. Remember these strategies help our EL learners.

String Class Overview

Miss Stuart, our string teacher, is giving an overview of the different instruments today in the cafeteria to grades 4-5-6. She demonstrates the violin, the viola, the cello, and the string bass so that the students can decide which instrument that they want to rent and learn to play during the school year. Miss Stuart is here on Thursdays and Fridays throughout the year to teach her classes.

First PTO Meeting & Halloween Carnival

We are excited about holding our first PTO meeting which will be held in the FL library on Tuesday, October 7. We want to see many parents and teachers join our PTO team this year. The first project that this group will be working on is organizing the Halloween Carnival which will be held on Friday, October 24 from

4:00- 6:00
